Stockholme, Dec. 20. N. S.

A Body of the Muſcovites, which had lain ſome time before Wyburgh, were lately obliged to raiſe that Siege, the Proviſions and other Stores they had brought with them being ſpent, and the Seaſon very bad; but before they drew off, they burnt Kilfvolda, and two or three other Villages in the Neighbourhood of that Place. Letters from thence of the 7th ſay, That the Czar of Muſcovy was then at Petersbourg; but having received the News of the Treaty lately concluded between the Kings of Sweden and Poland, he had reſolved to ſet out from thence forthwith towards the Frontiers of Poland.

Cracow, Dec. 15. The Prince of Saxe-Zeits, who came lately from Germany, continues in this Place; and the Vice-Chancellor of Poland, with ſeveral other Perſons of Note, arrived here this Week. The Standards and Colours taken from the Swedes in the Battle of Kaliſch, and many of the Priſoners, have been brought hither, and are ſubſiſted with Proviſions out of our Magazine, and meet with very kind Uſage: But as the Palatine of Kiow, with ſeveral of the Confederated Nobility of Poland, who were alſo taken Priſoners in that Action, were bringing hither, under a Guard of Saxon Troops, the Sieur Smigielski, who is now in the Czar's Service, came upon them with a Body of Muſcovites, and having taken the Priſoners out of the Cuſtody of the Saxons, he carried them to Prince Menzikoff, the Muſcovite General's Quarters at Zolkiow; from whence it is ſaid they are to be ſent to Moſcow. General Czeremet, with ſeveral other Muſcovite Generals, are gone to Zolkiow, to hold a Council of War. Some Muſcovite Troops being marched to Lemberg, and the Commanding Officer requiring the Inhabitants to provide them Quarters, and all other Neceſſaries for their Subſiſtence, the Magiſtrates ſent Deputies to Prince Menzikoff, to repreſent the Unreaſonableneſs of thoſe Demands, and deſire that they might be moderated, who has granted their Requeſt, and treated them with great Civility. General Baur is quartered near Zamosk with another Body of Muſcovites. A Regiment of Muſcovite Granadiers has taken Quarters at Polonna in Volhinia; and ſome other of their Troops are come to Bar and Conſtantinow in Podolia, where they intend to continue the remaining part of this Winter. A Body of 2500 of the Zaporogue Coſſacks lately made an Irruption into the Territories of Bialacerkiow, Boguſlaw and Korſum, plundering and ravaging wherever they came; but General Mazeppa having ſent a Detachment of 3000 of his Coſſacks againſt them, obliged them to retire.

Warſaw, Dec. 24. Several of the Senators and others of the Nobility of Poland are now in Town, who are frequently in Conference together, to conſult what Meaſures to take in the preſent Conjuncture. They write from Lemberg, That the Crown General had iſſued Orders for aſſembling the Troops under his Command, and had been in Conſultation there with the Muſcovite Generals Czeremethoff, Wolowin and Dolhonig; after which they went to Zolkiow, to confer with Prince Menzicoff, with whom they found the Staroſt Smigielski, who had brought thither the Palatine of Kiow, and ſeveral others of the Nobility of Poland who were taken Priſoners in the Battle of Kaliſch; And that a Body of Muſcovites was marched towards the Diſtrict of Pocutia, to ſpoil the Eſtates of the ſaid Palatine, and others, who are in the ſame Intereſt with him. The Muſcovites are putting Garriſons into Lemberg, Lublin, and other Towns in this Kingdom; and it is reported, That the Czar is ſhortly expected in theſe Parts.

Vienna, Dec. 25. Baron Szirmai ſet out the 22d Inſtant for Hungary, with Diſpatches from this Court, relating, as is ſaid, to ſome Propoſals towards renewing the Negociations for ending the Troubles in Hungary by an Accommodation. The Malecontents threatening an Irruption into Sclavonia, General Creutz is gone to Eſſeck, to make the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for the Security of that Frontier. Letters from Arath ſay, Count Berzeni was advancing with 15000 Malecontents towards Segedin and Zolnock, with intent to have attacked thoſe Places, but was countermanded by Prince Ragotzi, who had ſent him Orders to march towards Roſenau. There are Advices from Turkey, That the Grand Vizier was ſtrangled, for endeavouring to encline the Sultan to ſuch Councils as are not agreeable to the Engagements into which the Ottoman Porte entred by the Treaty of Carlowitz; and that Monſieur Guarient, the Emperor's Miniſter there, had received freſh Aſſurances of their Diſpoſition to obſerve the ſame inviolably. Count Zinzendorf arrived here two Days ago from the Netherlands. Count Schlick, Commiſſary General of the Emperor's Forces in Italy, is on his Departure thither. The States of the Lower Auſtria have given Orders for the raiſing, with all expedition, the Men they have agreed to furniſh towards recruiting the Emperor's Forces; and the like will forthwith be done in the reſt of his Imperial Majeſty's Hereditary Dominions.

Falmouth, Dec. 30. On the 27th Inſtant put in here the Nueſtra Sennora de la Piedez, from Bilboa, bound for Amſterdam, and laden with Wooll and Iron, Peter Balpard Commander. The ſame Day ſailed hence the Oſter, Bodin Twaping Maſter, from Stockholme, laden with Pipe-ſtaves, and bound for Cadiz. The 29th came in the Prudent Mary from Jerſey, bound for Viana, in Ballaſt, John Goor Commander: And this Day two Dutch Doggers from Bourdeaux, bound for Rotterdam, and a Buſs from thence for St. Malo.

Yarmouth, Jan. 3. On the firſt Inſtant divers light Colliers paſſed through our Road from the Southward, being bound for Newcaſtle: And yeſterday ſailed through our Road for the Northward a Fleet of Coaſters and Colliers, under Convoy of two of Her Majeſty's Ships.

Portſmouth, Jan. 2. The 31ſt paſt Her Majeſty's Ships under the Command of Sir Thomas Dilks, with the Fleet under their Convoy, ſailed to St. Helens; but the Wind being contrary, they returned yeſterday to Spithead.

There are Three Mails due from Holland.

The Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of Her Majeſty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That the following Days are appointed for Treating for Engliſh Canvas, and for the Importation of ſuch of the Forcign Stores hereafter-mentioned as are to be Imported the Year enſuing for Her Majeſty's Navy; and that they will be ready to receive Tenders, and to come to Agreements for the ſame, in the uſual Method, on thoſe Days, between the Hours of Ten and One, ſo as the Dealers may have Time to get ready
